Welcome to Holy Trinity Parish

Today is the Sunday of Forgiveness. The Epistle is Romans 13:11-14:4.

The Gospel is from Matthew 6:14-21. Martyr Christina of Persia.

Holy Trinity is a diverse and welcoming parish of the Carpatho Russian Diocese, under the Ecumenical Patriarchate.

His Grace, Bishop Gregory of Nyssa, is our diocesan ruling hierarch.

Divine Liturgy is offered Sunday at 10 am. As reminder only those Orthodox Christians who are properly prepared are invited to receive Holy Communion.

Everyone is invited downstairs following Divine Liturgy for Coffee Hour and Fellowship.

Come down and meet Fr. Luke and the parishioners.

Our parish offers many opportunities to pray, to study and learn more about Jesus Christ and His Holy Orthodox Church.

If you have any questions about the Orthodox Church, our Faith, or our parish please feel free to contact Fr. Luke. He is more than happy to meet with you and talk.

Weekly Offering

Envelopes: Pick up your weekly offering envelopes for 2016 in the hall. WE will collect all the Pledge Forms on Sunday, March 5 unless you hand them in beforehand.

This Lent we will be having Presanctified Liturgies on Wednesday evenings at 6 PM.
Following Liturgy we will have a light Lenten covered dish meal.
During the meal we will have our Catechism Class.

Please feel free to bring a Lenten dish, and bring an inquisitive mind to learn more about our Orthodox Faith.

Thank you to all of our roll baker! We got a lot done and we had fun!

Lenten Fast

As we begin Lent together, the following minimal fasting regulations are designated for our clergy and faithful:

1) Monday, March 14 (Clean Monday), the first day of the Fast, is a day of strict abstinence; likewise Great and Holy Friday, and Great and Holy Saturday, namely April 29 and 30 are days of strict abstinence.
On these days, no meat or dairy products may be eaten.

2) All Wednesdays and Fridays during this entire Season are days of abstinence from meat.

3) Meat and meat products may not be eaten during all of Holy Week, namely April 25 through April 30.

4) For the evening Pre-sanctified Liturgy, a minimum three-hours fast from all food and drink must be observed before the reception of Holy Communion. Normal fasting from midnight is still practiced before the Liturgies of St. John Chrysostom and St. Basil the Great.

These are the minimal requirements to observe during this Season. But for those of stronger body and more willing spirit, I wholeheartedly recommend the penitential practices of a sterner quality which the time-honored traditions and customs of our Holy Orthodox Church have handed down to us.

On weekdays (Monday to Friday inclusive) during the seven weeks of Lent, there are restrictions both on the number of meals taken daily and on the types of food permitted; but when a meal is allowed, there is no fixed limitation on the quantity of food to be eaten.

On weekdays in the first week, fasting is particularly severe.

According to strict observance, in the course of the five initial days of Lent, only two meals are eaten, one on Wednesday and the other on Friday, in both cases after the liturgy of the Presanctified.

On the other three days, those who have the strength are encouraged to keep an absolute fast; those for whom this proves impracticable may eat on Tuesday and Thursday (but not, if possible, on Monday), in the evening after Vespers, when they may take bread and water or perhaps tea or fruit-juice, but not a cooked meal.

... At the meals on Wednesday and Friday xerophagy is prescribed.
Literally this means 'dry eating'. Strictly interpreted, it signifies that we may eat only vegetables cooked with water and salt, and also such things as fruit, nuts, bread and honey.
In practice, octopus and shellfish are also allowed on days of xerophagy; likewise vegetable margarine and corn or other vegetable oil, not made from olives. But the following categories of food are definitely excluded: Meat; animal products (cheese, milk, butter, eggs, lard, drippings); fish (i.e., fish with backbones); oil (i.e., olive oil) and wine (i.e., all alcoholic drinks).

On weekdays (Monday to Friday inclusive) in the second, third, fourth, fifth and sixth weeks, one meal a day is permitted, to be taken in the afternoon following Vespers, and at this one meal xerophagy is to be observed.
During Holy Week: On the first three days there is one meal each day, with xerophagy; but some try to keep a complete fast on these days, or else they eat only uncooked food, as on the opening days of the first week. On Holy Thursday one meal is eaten, with wine and oil. On Great Friday those who have the strength follow the practice of the early Church and keep a total fast; those unable to do this may eat bread, with a little water, tea or fruit-juice, but not until sunset, or at any rate after [the Burial Service] at Vespers. On Holy Saturday there is one meal after the Liturgy of St. Basil, with wine but not oil. [This material is taken from the introduction to The Lenten Triodion. In modern practice, the above rules tend to be somewhat relaxed, and they have always been relaxed for children and the infirm. Fast as you are able, and consult Fr. Luke as needed. As you eat less physical food, it is important to increase your intake of spiritual food – prayer and reading scripture and the fathers of the Church.]

Clothing Drive | Easter Bake Sales

We are now collecting for our 4th clothing drive.

The first of our two Easter Bake Sales will be this Saturday March 19th and Sunday March 20th. We will need help setting up and sugaring cookies on Friday, March 18th and people to work the bake table, kitchen and general help on Saturday. Please sign up in the hall today so we know where we have holes in coverage. Also, we do still have some craft tables available if you would like to have one, see Susan Sulich.

Penny Social

Our 2nd annual Penny Social is scheduled for Sunday April 3, 2016. Thank you for your donations, we have many items and will continue to accept donations through March 13th. As a reminder, we will accept any item with a tag or in its original packaging and are also looking for gently used collector's items including china, glassware, jewelry and home décor.

We are still in need of some items for the larger raffle prizes. We would be appreciative of higher value items and gift cards. If any parishioner has a business or frequents one and can donate a gift card for merchandise or service that would be great. We will need help with setup the week of March 21st, dates TBD. We are looking for bakers to make desserts that we can sell at the event and will also need volunteers the day of the Penny Social to help sell tickets, runners to deliver the prizes and kitchen help.

If you can volunteer some of your time in any of these areas, please contact Kristen Szymanowicz at kszymano@gmail.com or 203.529.3144. Thank you!

| Icon Procession

We will be having a procession with icons next Sunday at end of liturgy. Children are asked to bring in their favorite icons for the procession around the church. We will be commemorating the restoration of icons in the Church.

Elder Sampson: The drunkard, the fornicator, the proud—he will receive God’s mercy. . . .

The drunkard, the fornicator, the proud—he will receive God’s mercy. But he who does not want to forgive, to excuse, to justify consciously, intentionally . . . that person closes himself to eternal life before God, and even more so in the present life. He is turned away and not heard [by God].

+ Elder Sampson, Orthodox Word #177, “Discussions & Teachings of Elder Sampson”

St. Macarius of Optina: Do not allow the spark of discord and enmity to smolder. . .

“Do not allow the spark of discord and enmity to smolder. The longer you wait, the more the enemy tries to cause confusion among you. Be watchful, so that he does not mock you. Humility destroys all of his schemes.”

+ St. Macarius of Optina, quoted from Living Without Hypocrisy: Spiritual Counsels of the Holy Elders of Optina

St. Isaac the Syrian: Do not fall into despair because of stumbling. . . .

“Do not fall into despair because of stumbling. I do not mean that you should not feel contrition for them, but that you should not think them incurable. For it is more expedient to be bruised than dead. There is, indeed, a Healer for the man who has stumbled, even He Who on the Cross asked that mercy be shown to His crucifiers, He Who pardoned His murders while He hung on the Cross. ‘All manner of sin,’ He said, ‘and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men,’ that is, through repentance.”

+ St. Isaac the Syrian, The Ascetical Homilies of St. Isaac the Syrian, Homily 64, “On Prayer, Prostrations, Tears, Reading, Silence, and Hymnody

St. John the Wonderworker: Concerning the Reception of the Holy Mysteries on Pascha

“The Lamb of God communicates with us on the holy and light-bearing night of Resurrection. We pray for this when we are just beginning to prepare for Lent, and afterwards many times during the course of the Great Fast: that the lord would vouchsafe us to partake of the Holy Mysteries on the night of Holy Pascha. At that time the grace of God acts in a special way upon men’s hearts. We partake of the Christ Resurrected, we become partakers of His Resurrection. Of course, we must prepare ahead of time, and, having already communed during Great Lent, receive again the Holy Mysteries. Before Paschal Liturgy there is no time for a proper confession; this must be done earlier. And then, on that light-bearing night, having received general absolution, to draw near to the Divine Lamb, the pledge of our resurrection. No one should leave the church prematurely, rushing away to eat the meat of animals instead of receiving the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ.”

+ St. John the Wonderworker, Man of God: Saint John of Shanghai & San Francisco
