Welcome to Holy Trinity Parish

Today is the Sunday of Orthodoxy. The Epistle is Hebrews 11:24-26, 32-12:2. The Gospel is from John 1:43-51. Venerable Martyr Conon.

Holy Trinity is a diverse and welcoming parish of the Carpatho Russian Diocese, under the Ecumenical Patriarchate.

His Grace, Bishop Gregory of Nyssa, is our diocesan ruling hierarch.

Divine Liturgy is offered Sunday at 10 am. As reminder only those Orthodox Christians who are properly prepared are invited to receive Holy Communion.

Everyone is invited downstairs following

Divine Liturgy for Coffee Hour and Fellowship.

Come down and meet Fr. Luke and the parishioners.

Our parish offers many opportunities to pray, to study and learn more about

Jesus Christ and His Holy Orthodox Church.

If you have any questions about the Orthodox Church, our Faith, or our parish please feel free to contact Fr. Luke. He is more than happy to meet with you and talk.

Sunday of Orthodoxy Vespers at St. George's - St. George's Orthodox Church here in Danbury will be hosting Sunday of Orthodoxy Vespers Sunday, March 5 at 5 PM. Fellowship Coffee Hour to Follow. Let us all come and worship together as one community on this first Sunday of Great Lent!

Roll Baking—We will be making nut, poppy, prune and fruit rolls for our Easter Bake Sale on Saturday, March 11th. We will need helpers throughout the day, rolling, filling, and packaging the rolls. Please let Sarah Baroodly know if you are able to give some time to this very important part of our bake sale.

Deanery Presanctified Liturgy will be held at St. John the Baptist Orthodox Church on Mill Avenue in Bridgeport on Friday, March 17

Alcoholism and Addiction | Church School | Easter Bake and Craft Sale

The Akathist Service to the Icon of the Inexhaustible Cup has proven to be a great help to all those who know someone or who themselves are struggling with alcoholism and addiction. We at Holy Trinity have quietly started serving the Akathist to the Icon of the Mother of God of the Inexhaustible Cup. If you are interested in attending the service please see Fr. Luke. This service is open to all parishioners. Look here for our next service. Saturday, March 18 at 4 PM

Church School meets on Sundays. Elementary school students will meet immediately after Divine Liturgy. Fr. Luke will be talking to the parents of the high school students to work on a schedule to meet outside of Sunday.

Easter Bake and Craft Sale—Preparations are underway for our Easter Bake and Craft Sale on April 1st and 2nd. If you would like to have one of our crafter tables to showcase your homemade artisan items or if you know a crafter that you think might be interested in being in our show, please contact Susan Sulich. Spaces are $35 for the two days.

The Children's Word

Have you ever heard somebody say, "You haven't seen anything yet!" Maybe you saw a show or a play or a performance, and you were so impressed with the first part. "You haven't seen anything yet!" somebody might say. Just wait and see what's next!

Today in the Gospel reading, we hear the story of how Jesus called some of His disciples to Him. Philip told his friend Nathaniel to come meet Jesus. But before Nathaniel could meet Him, Jesus seemed to already know him. Then Nathaniel was really impressed! "How do you know me?" he asked. Jesus answered him, "You will see greater things than these!"

Nathaniel went on to be one of Jesus' close followers, His disciple. He saw Jesus do so many miracles—healing people, feeding crowds of people, even raising people from the dead! But still, those miracles were nothing compared to the greatest miracle of all—when Christ rose from the dead. "You will see greater things than these!" Jesus told Nathaniel. In other words, "You haven't seen anything yet!"

Today is the first Sunday of Lent. These words in the Gospel today remind us what is coming. At the end of Lent, we will see "the greatest thing" of all—our Lord's glorious Resurrection!

Prayer Group

Prayer Group—Our Prayer Group is now meeting on Thursday mornings, immediately following services. We are currently reading "Courage to Pray" by Metropolitan Anthony Bloom and George Lefebvre. In this class we are learning about prayer, personal and intercessory, and it is an opportunity to share some of the struggles and encouraging parts of our prayer lives.

| Diaper Drive

Diaper Drive—We're kicking off another Diaper Drive for the Women's Center of Greater Danbury. The Center's focus is to be a safe-haven and provider of services to women in crisis from domestic and sexual abuse. As part of the Center's mission, they provide a 13-bed shelter which temporarily provides a refuge to women and children, and they are often in need of diapers since many of the women have trouble affording these necessary items. For the next 4 weeks we will be collecting diapers and baby wipes. The center is particularly in need of size 4, 5, and 6 diapers. Any diaper donations that you can make will be gladly accepted! If you have any questions, please see Jennie Fong.

Clothing Drive Starts

Our next Clothing Drive is ON! Thank you, Ann and the entire Huott Family. Start saving all your extra clothes, shoes, pillows, etc. for our clothing drive. The last clothing drive we collected more than a tone of clothes and we received more than $400.00

Perogie Sessions

This Tuesday, March 7th we will be making stuffed cabbage instead of perogies. The filling will be pre-made but we need as many hands as possible to help with prepping cabbage, filling and rolling. We will start at 9:00 a.m. following the Lenten Hours service (8:30 a.m.) Perogie making will resume the following Tuesday, March 14th.

Young Adult Retreat

The American Carpatho-Russian Orthodox Diocese and the Greek Orthodox Metropolis of Pittsburgh invite College Students and Young Adults ages 18-35 to participate in a new exciting new retreat program! This Retreat will be held at Camp Nazareth Retreat and Conference Center in Mercer, PA from March 17-19, 2017. The theme will be, "Navigating Life Using Your Spiritual Compass." Welcome home, everyone!

Lenten Fast

As we begin Lent together, the following minimal fasting regulations are designated for our clergy and faithful:

- 1) Great and Holy Friday, and Great and Holy Saturday, namely April 14 and 15 are days of strict abstinence. On these days, no meat or dairy products may be eaten.
- 2) All Wednesdays and Fridays during this entire Season are days of abstinence from meat.
- 3) Meat and meat products may not be eaten during all of Holy Week, namely April 10 through April 15.
- 4) For the evening Pre-sanctified Liturgy, a minimum three-hours fast from all food and drink must be observed before the reception of Holy Communion. Normal fasting from midnight is still practiced before the Liturgies of St. John Chrysostom and St. Basil the Great.

These are the minimal requirements to observe during this Season. But for those of stronger body and more willing spirit, I wholeheartedly recommend the penitential practices of a sterner quality which the time-honored traditions and customs of our Holy Orthodox Church have handed down to us.

On weekdays (Monday to Friday inclusive) during the seven weeks of Lent, there are restrictions both on the number of meals taken daily and on the types of food permitted; but when a meal is allowed, there is no

On weekdays (Monday to Friday inclusive) during the seven weeks of Lent, there are restrictions both on the number of meals taken daily and on the types of food permitted; but when a meal is allowed, there is no fixed limitation on the quantity of food to be eaten.

[This material is taken from the introduction to The Lenten Triodion. In modern practice, the above rules tend to be somewhat relaxed, and they have always been relaxed for children and the infirm. Fast as you are able, and consult Fr. Luke as needed. As you eat less physical food, it is important to increase your intake of spiritual food – prayer and reading scripture and the fathers of the Church.]

Help Support our Orthodox Youth Mission Team—After 6 years of serving in West Virginia, Kentucky and Tennessee through the Appalachian Service Project (ASP) the OYMT will be participating in an Orthodox Christian Mission Center short-term mission trip to Alaska. Youth and leaders from our parish (Ana and Grace Radcliff, Madeline Sulich, Susan Sulich and Fr. Luke) and 5 others will be serving Orthodox brothers and sisters in the small village of Napaskiak, running youth camp programs and helping with construction projects. This is the first time a high school team will be volunteering through OCMC. It is a wonderful and unprecedented opportunity for our youth and we are very excited to go and do Christ's work! As in the past, OYMT is selling stock for $10 a share to fund our trip during coffee hour. You may have received a stock letter in the mail. You can bring to coffee hour, mail back or donate online at www.oymt.info. We ask that you please be as generous as you can in your support and pray for us as we prepare for our mission trip. Thank you!
