Welcome to Holy Trinity Parish

Today is the twenty-third Sunday after Pentecost, Eighth Sunday of Luke. The Epistle Ephesians 2:4-10. The Gospel is from Luke 10:26-37. John the Merciful.

Holy Trinity is a diverse and welcoming parish of the Carpatho Russian Diocese, under the Ecumenical Patriarchate.

His Grace, Bishop Gregory of Nyssa, is our diocesan ruling hierarch.

Divine Liturgy is offered Sunday at 10 am. As reminder only those Orthodox Christians who are properly prepared are invited to receive Holy Communion.

Everyone is invited downstairs following Divine

Liturgy for Coffee Hour and Fellowship.

Come down and meet Fr. Luke and the parishioners.

Our parish offers many opportunities to pray, to study and learn more about Jesus Christ and His Holy Orthodox Church.

If you have any questions about the Orthodox Church, our Faith, or our parish please feel free to contact Fr. Luke. He is more than happy to meet with you and talk.

Alcoholism and Addiction | New Rectory | Church School

The Akathist Service to the Icon of the Inexhaustible Cup has proven to be a great help to all those who know someone or who themselves are struggling with alcoholism and addiction. We at Holy Trinity have quietly started serving the Akathist to the Icon of the Mother of God of the Inexhaustible Cup. If you are interested in attending the service please see Fr. Luke. This service is open to all parishioners. Saturday, September 24 at 4 PM.

New Rectory Moving Forward! Last week our parish voted overwhelmingly to sign the contract with Westchester Modular to begin work on our new rectory. Thank you to everyone who took the time to attend the special parish meeting and cast your vote. Stay tuned for updates and if you haven't already done so, subscribe to our website: www.holytrinitydanbury.org to see construction photos and updates.

Church School—Our next school will be Saturday, Dec. 16th. We have had an excellent response to the classes and the children and teens have been great. Be sure to take a look at the artwork and what the youth have to say about it on the stairs down to the hall. Class schedule for the rest of the year is as follows: Sat. 12/16 and Fri. 12/22. Saturday morning classes will be from 10:00-12:00 and Friday classes will be from 5:30-7:30 p.m. Please mark these date on your calendar. Children and teens will continue to learn about the Old Testament. There will be art activities, service projects and fun!

OYMT 2018

Orthodox Youth Mission Team 2018—Next July OYMT will be once again participating in the Appalachian Service Project (ASP). The trip will take place from July 7-15. (It does not conflict with our Camp Nazareth week.) Training sessions will start in December and the team will meet approximately once a month until we leave for Appalachia. We are currently sign up team members. If you are currently in 8th grade or older you are eligible to join the team. We also need adult leaders. If you have any questions about OYMT, contact Fr. Luke or Susan Sulich (ssulich@yahoo.com). Deadline for signing up is Nov. 12th.

| Preschool Church School | Bake Sale Cooking

Preschool Church School – We will be having a church school class for our preschoolers led by Stasia Thompson on Dec. 16th and the time to 10:00 to 11:00 (during the first hour of our older youth class). If your preschooler will attend, please let Stasia know by phone: 203-837-6248.

Bake Sale Cooking – We're down to our final week of preparing for our Thanksgiving Bake Sale. This week's cooking and baking schedule is as follows:

Tuesday, Nov. 14th –

Wednesday, Nov. 15th –
Stuffed Cabbage at 9:00 a.m.

Friday Morning—Set Up

Prayer Group

Prayer Group: Starting the week of September 11th our prayer class will be meeting on Thursday mornings following the Akathist (about 9 am) due to perogie sessions on Tuesday. We are about to start a new section in our book--all are welcome.

| Holy Trinity's Got Talent!

Holy Trinity's Got Talent! An upcoming production of The Secret Garden features 4 members of our parish: Nick and Jennie Fong and their daughter Alexa and Sandi Fong. It's being put on by the Bedford Community Theatre (<http://bedfordcommunitytheatre.org/current-season/>) with performances on Nov. 17, 18 and 19.

| Bake Sale Help

Bake Sale Help—We will need helpers for our Bake and Craft Sale this coming Saturday, Nov. 18th. Help is needed in the kitchen starting at 8:00 a.m. and also to help fill orders and help man tables. Please consider working a morning or afternoon shift. All help is welcome, even if you only have a few hours to give.

Clothing Drive

A Huge Thank You to Ann Huott and the entire Huott Family on another successful Clothing Drive! Over 300 bags of clothes were collected.

Secret Santa is Coming!

Secret Santa is Coming! Our St. Nicholas Brunch will take place on Sunday Dec. 3rd and we will once again have our "Secret Santa." Anyone who wishes to participate (adults and children), we will draw names on Sunday Nov. 12th. Put your name in, take a name out and buy a small gift ($15 maximum) for the person you pick. Wrap and bring the gifts to the brunch and give to your person.

We have sliced Roast Turkey for sale. $4.00 a pound in the church refrigerator.

We also need help moving the refrigerator from the rental house to church hall today.

As we once again enter the Season of the Nativity Fast, Bishop Gregory asks you, actually pleads with you, the good faithful people of our Diocese, to join him on a journey to meet the new born King. During these 40 days leading to the Nativity of our Lord let us increase our efforts in church attendance, in prayer, in fasting, in scriptural reading, in almsgiving, in repentance and confession, in receiving the Eucharist.

This year, just like the last two years, he is challenging everyone, clergy and laity, to offer a special prayer for peace during evening prayers. During the Litany of Fervent Supplication at each Divine Liturgy a special petition is also to be included. The text of these prayers will be provided to the Clergy for distribution. Each household should have sufficient copies so that each young person that can read has one by their bed to use nightly and those who are too young to read may say the prayer with their parents before they go to bed.

For the Children

Train up a child in the way he should go; and when he is old, he will not depart from it. - Proverbs 22:6

One of our Deanery faithful is going on an OCMC Mission trip to Nairobi and is asking for our support. Please consider helping Joel Pleban with your prayers and, if you are able, financial aid. Please follow this link: https://www.ocmc.org/about/view_team.aspx?TeamId=1188

2017 Kenya Youth Work Team

Traveling From: 11/29/2017 to 12/9/2017; Team Cost: $1070*

Nairobi, KENYA – There is an urgent need to safeguard ‘our children’ in and out of school surrounding the Makarios III Patriarchal Seminary in Nairobi. Make a difference in the lives of the youth by participating in a Youth Mentorship Program. This initiative is geared to help teens with life skills while sharing the Orthodox Faith.

The 2017 Kenya Mission Team has been invited by His Eminence Archbishop MAKARIOS of Kenya to participate in a mentorship program for youth and teens. The “Teen & Youth Mentorship Program” of the Orthodox Archdiocese of Kenya will take place at by the St. Clement of Alexandria Primary School, located near the Makarios III Patriarchal Seminary.

This mentorship program shall incorporate children, teens and youth from the greater Kawangware community and other parts of Nairobi. This program hopes to: cultivate an atmosphere for self awareness and self confidence; help teens and youth to appreciate education; equip teens and youth with life skills beyond academics; and impart a positive approach and attitude to life for teens and youth from destitute backgrounds. There will be different activities for each “target” group. The activities day will be led by facilitators for each target group, and include indoor and outdoor activities.

Orthodoxy arose in East Africa without the influence of foreign missionaries. The Church was founded by two charismatic African men searching for truth and ‘orthodoxia’ in the 1920’s. The Orthodox Church in Kenya was received into canonical Orthodoxy in 1946, and the Makarios III Patriarchal Seminary was opened in the 1980’s to train indigenous priests from Africa. OCMC has supported the work of the Orthodox Church in Kenya for over 30 years and continues to provide support for theological and catechetical training, and works with church leaders to address issues of self-sufficiency for the church. Presently, the Church in Kenya has three hierarchs, His Eminence Archbishop MAKARIOS of Kenya, Bishop NEOPHYTOS of Nyeri and Mount Kenya, and Bishop ATHANASIOS of Kisumu and Western Kenya.
