Welcome to Holy Trinity Parish

Today is the Sunday of the Forefathers. The Epistle Colossians 3:4-11. The Gospel is from Luke 14:16-24. Prophet Haggai.

Holy Trinity is a diverse and welcoming parish of the Carpatho Russian Diocese, under the Ecumenical Patriarchate.

His Eminence, Metropolitan Gregory of Nyssa, is our diocesan ruling hierarch.

Divine Liturgy is offered Sunday at 10 am. As a reminder only those Orthodox Christians who are properly prepared are invited to receive Holy Communion.

Everyone is invited downstairs following Divine

Liturgy for Coffee Hour and Fellowship.

Come down and meet Fr. Luke and the parishioners.

Our parish offers many opportunities to pray, to study and learn more about Jesus Christ and His Holy Orthodox Church.

If you have any questions about the Orthodox Church, our Faith, or our parish please feel free to contact Fr. Luke. He is more than happy to meet with you and talk.

Diocesan Parenting Workshop Series Launches

Our Diocese is pleased to announce a series of Parenting Workshops designed to help parents raise their children in the Faith. The title of the series is "Raising Believing Children" and will focus on the ways parents can help their children stay faithful to Christ and His Church in a world that is filled with doubt and most often works against their Faith. The Workshops are for parents of any age – you're never too old to be a son or daughter, and likewise you're never too old to be a parent! This series of Parenting Workshops will be hosted by different Churches and Deaneries around our Diocese starting in March 2019. The first Workshop in the Series will be hosted by Sts. Peter and Paul Church in Rockaway, NJ on March 2, 2019. The first will feature His Eminence Metropolitan Gregory of Nyssa and Very Rev. Stephen Lopusky as presenters and workshop facilitators. Each workshop will be broadcast live online and will be archived for later viewing as well, and will include both presentations and small group moderated discussions to allow participants to help each other in their lives as parents. This is an exciting and important endeavor. His Eminence Metropolitan Gregory invites you to join him in support of parents as our Diocese launches this initiative to help them in their parental vocation.

For more information and to register for the first Workshop, or if you would like to host a Parenting Workshop, visit our Diocesan Website- acrod.org and look for the Diocesan Parenting Workshop Series logo.

New Parish Directory | Christmas Decorations

New Parish Directory—At long last, we have an updated parish directory available. Hard copies will be available in the church hall. If you want a digital copy, please email Susan Sulich at ssulich@yahoo.com. Many thanks to Pani Bethany, Paul Sulich and Ana Melnic for all the help getting the new directory together.

You have probably noticed over the last few weeks the beautiful change within the church. Every year as part their stewardship towards our parish, Stella and Bill Woodfield prayerfully and with utmost care to the Christ Child decorate our church for Christmas. The transformation of parish is breathe taking every year. With the garland, the lights, poinsettias, the Christmas tree, there is always that little extra touch that Stella and Bill bring to make the church that much more special. A special thank you also to Paul Sulich and Orestes Mihaly for cutting down and putting up this years' Christmas tree. In a few years, we will be able to cut our tree from the ones we planted here on our parish property. Many thanks to Stella and Bill Woodfield for once again giving their talent and time to beautifully decorate the church for Christmas. Also thanks to Orestes Mihaly and Paul Sulich for getting the Christmas tree.

"... a place of refuge full of love and joy."

Christmas Bake Sale—A HUGE

THANK YOU to all those who made our Christmas Sale such a success. From those who came to make more perogies, bake more rolls, cook more stuffed cabbage, bake more cookies and make more jams. To all those who set up the church hall, worked the kitchen, ran the bookstore, fill orders and clean up. It was a total parish effort! God bless all of you for your stewardship to our parish!

Music of the Christmas Season—Holy Trinity Orthodox Church, 46 Seymour St., Yonkers, NY will offer a free concert of Christmas music on Wednesday, Dec. 19th at 7 p.m. There will be a reception and Christmas Bazaar following the concert.

A makeover

Do you know what a “makeover” is? You might have seen one in a magazine or even on TV. You see pictures of one person, and then you see pictures of that same person with new clothes, a new hairstyle, everything different. That person was made over. You see from the pictures how he or she changed for the better!

Today in the epistle reading, we hear about a different kind of makeover. Saint Paul’s letter talks about how we Christians have to put away our old ways and put on our new ways. We have to get rid of things like “anger, rage, malice, slander, and filthy language from your lips. Do not lie to each other, since you have taken off your old self with its practices and have put on the new self.”

In his letter, Saint Paul was talking to people who had just become Christians. But we can listen to him every day of our lives. That’s because every day, we can try to get a makeover! You can change “the old you” by being gentle and friendly and loving and honest, and with good words coming from your lips. You can change that “old self” of yours into a “new self” by acting the way our Lord wants us to act!

THE THREE HOLY YOUNG MEN: FAITH EVEN IN THE FIRE

We all know stories from the Old Testament like Jonah and the big fish, Noah’s ark, Adam and Eve, Daniel and the lion’s den. But have you heard the amazing story of the 3 holy young men?

Long ago, before Christ was born, a king named Nebuchadnezzar built a big huge statue of himself. Why? Because he wanted everybody to worship him, and not God! These three boys were friends with the prophet Daniel. They knew it was silly to worship a statue. They only wanted to worship the one, true God. But when they wouldn’t worship the statue of the king, the king grew really angry. He sent them into a blazing furnace, a fire. But inside the fire, the three boys prayed to God. They asked God to help them.

The Bible says that God sent an angel to cool the fire for them. So, instead of feeling hot, the three boys felt a nice, cool dew. They trusted in God, even when things were awful for them. These three young men, named Ananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, knew that God was much more powerful than the king.

What do you think you can learn from these three holy young men? Can you try to trust God as much as they did? Even when things are hard for you?

We celebrate the 3 holy saints on Monday, Dec. 17th (Dec. 30th, OC)
