Welcome to Holy Trinity Parish

Today is the Sunday after Theophany. The Epistle Ephesians 4:7-13. The Gospel is from Matthew 4:12-17. Gregory of Nyssa.

Holy Trinity is a diverse and welcoming parish of the Carpatho Russian Diocese, under the Ecumenical Patriarchate.

His Eminence, Metropolitan Gregory of Nyssa, is our diocesan ruling hierarch.

Divine Liturgy is offered Sunday at 10 am. As reminder only those Orthodox Christians who are properly prepared are invited to receive Holy Communion.

Everyone is invited downstairs following Divine Liturgy for Coffee Hour and Fellowship.

Come down and meet Fr. Luke and the parishioners.

Our parish offers many opportunities to pray, to study and learn more about Jesus Christ and His Holy Orthodox Church.

If you have any questions about the Orthodox Church, our Faith, or our parish please feel free to contact Fr. Luke. He is more than happy to meet with you and talk.

Pay Down Our

Mortgages—This week we made a payment to the principal of the rectory mortgage of almost $3,000. That money represents the amount that was saved from reducing the mortgage rate this year (which was decided would go back to the paying down the principle), the contents of our change jar and a private donation. The change jar is in the hall so please remember to drop in your loose change when possible. Sarah Mannello will explain at our annual meeting on the 24th how regularly payments to principal can reduce the length of our loan and save the church over $8,000.

It has been an interesting year to say the least and we have much to share with everyone. We also need everyone's input and ideas on how to best attend to the business of the parish and outreach to our family and the greater community. Also, there are several board positions open. If you have time and interest, please speak to a current council member for more information. The meeting will take place in the church hall and also on Zoom. If you are unable to attend, please consider giving your proxy to another parishioner or council member so that we can have a quorum and accomplish the necessary business of the church.

| Clothing Drive

Clothing Drive— We just received our latest check for $357.50 for the clothing drive! We are continuing to accept more donations. Many thanks to Ann Huott and her family for their ongoing work on this project which has brought in over $3,000 for our parish! For the last pick up they had 200 bags. Please bring in clothes, shoes, linens and other soft items in plastic garbage bags to the church. If you are uncertain what items are eligible, see the list at the candlestand or contact Ann.

His Eminence, Metropolitan Gregory, strongly feels that our priests should NOT ENTER parishioners’ homes for the traditional Blessing. However, he is allowing our priests to make a local decision for an alternate procedure to chant the Theophany Home Blessing prayer from the porch of a home, blessing with water without entering. This is to be a local decision. Otherwise, parishioners should be advised that the Home Blessings will not be held this year but will resume in the traditional manner next year.

Metropolitan Gregory is also advising our clergy to bless sufficient water to allow faithful to take water from the Church to their homes for their use throughout this year.

- If you would like your house blessed, please contact Fr. Luke for arrangements and times.

No one is obligated to have their homes blessed, but it is a great opportunity for the church to come into your home, for me to visit with you and your family. It would be a shame to lose this tradition as it is a great opportunity for priest and parishioners to bond and connect in your homes.

Also note, that you can have your home blessed at any time of the year as can water, if needed. It is traditional to do both around Theophany.

Parish Movie Night—Last night we had a parish movie night in the hall and it worked out very well. We watch Paul, the Apostle which gave much to think about. There was plenty of space for people to spread out. We’d like to try to do a movie night monthly if there is interest. Please add any movies you’d like to view and discuss as a parish to the list in the hall.
