Welcome to Holy Trinity Parish

Today is the Sunday of Forgiveness. The Epistle is from Romans 13:11-14:4.

The Gospel is from Matthew 6:14-21. 42 Martyrs of Ammoria.

Holy Trinity is a diverse and welcoming parish of the Carpatho Russian Diocese, under the Ecumenical Patriarchate.

His Eminence, Metropolitan Gregory of Nyssa, is our diocesan ruling hierarch.

Divine Liturgy is offered Sunday at 10 am. As reminder only those Orthodox Christians who are properly prepared are invited to receive Holy Communion.

Everyone is invited downstairs following Divine Liturgy for Coffee Hour and Fellowship.

Come down and meet Fr. Luke and the parishioners.

Our parish offers many opportunities to pray, to study and learn more about Jesus Christ and His Holy Orthodox Church.

If you have any questions about the Orthodox Church, our Faith, or our parish please feel free to contact Fr. Luke. He is more than happy to meet with you and talk.

Adult Education Opportunities

We have several adult education classes going on currently that are currently online:

Spirituality Class – Mondays at 7:00 p.m. This week we will be starting a new book: The Religion of the Apostles

Catechism Class – Wednesdays at 7:00 p.m.

For those studying to come into the Church and those in the Church who want to deepen their understanding and participation in the Faith. We'll be starting a new book soon, Gregory of Nyssa: Catechetical Discourse.

New Testament – Thursdays at 9:00 a.m. currently we are reading and studying St. Paul's First Epistle to the Corinthians

Old Testament Class – Fridays at 9:00 a.m. We have begun Maccabees.

All classes will take place in the church hall. We will also make them available via Zoom for those who cannot attend in person. (live, same credentials).

Church Store—Need a gift? Consider shopping in our Church Store. Your purchase benefits the parish and we have a beautiful selection of icons, jewelry, books and religious items. If there are any items you would like to see in our store, please let Lisa Farrah or Sarah Mannello know.

Movie "Man of God" about the Life of St. Nectarios is playing in Danbury, CT on Monday, March 21 at 7 PM. Tickets are $15.00 each. Please let Pani Bethany know.

Fr. Chad Hatfield, Dean of St. Vladimir's Seminary has graciously accepted an invitation to serve on Sunday, March 27 and lead a Lenten retreat following Coffee Hour that Sunday. His retreat theme is: "Mary, Mysteries & Mission". Please reserve this date on your calendar.

OYMT Update

OYMT Updates—We had a very successful first training session last Sunday for the Orthodox Youth Mission Team. Fr. Luke is looking to get together with the team members who didn't make it to catch them up on what was discussed. Please do your best make yourself available for this session. Our next training session will take place here at Holy Trinity on Sunday, Feb. 27th from 3:00-5:00 p.m.

| New Donation Envelopes

New Donation Envelopes—Envelopes for 2022 are in. If this is your preferred method of making donations, please see Susan Sulich to get your new envelopes. NOTE: We will be starting with all new numbers this year.

| Roll Bakers Needed

Roll Bakers Needed--Next Saturday we have the 1st of 2 Baking Sessions in March to replenish the rolls for our Pascha Bake Sale. We're reaching out and asking for you to sign up for our bake session Saturday 3/19. If you can offer 3-4 hours either or both Saturdays it would be greatly appreciated. Please reply back with the day(s)/time(s) that you can offer help. We start rolling 8m, but if it's more convenient for you to start at 9 or thereafter just let us know. If it's more doable for you and you want to make the fillings (Nut and Poppy) the day before on Friday, that would be great too.

Many thanks, looking forward to rolling up our sleeves, and nut rolls, with you!

Help Re-Stock Our Kitchen—We are in of sturdy paper plates, bowls, napkins, gallon size freezer bags and decaf coffee. Thank you!

As we begin Lent together, the following minimal fasting regulations are designated for our clergy and faithful:

- 1) Monday, March 7 (Clean Monday), the first day of the Fast, is a day of strict abstinence; likewise Great and Holy Friday, and Great and Holy Saturday, namely April 22 and 23 are days of strict abstinence. On these days, no meat or dairy products may be eaten.
- 2) All Wednesdays and Fridays during this entire Season are days of abstinence from meat.
- 3) Meat and meat products may not be eaten during all of Holy Week, namely April 18 through April 23.
- 4) For the evening Pre-sanctified Liturgy, a minimum three-hours fast from all food and drink must be observed before the reception of Holy Communion. Normal fasting from midnight is still practiced before the Liturgies of St. John Chrysostom and St. Basil the Great.

These are the minimal requirements to observe during this Season. But for those of stronger body and more willing spirit, I wholeheartedly recommend the penitential practices of a sterner quality which the time-honored traditions and customs of our Holy Orthodox Church have handed down to us.

On weekdays (Monday to Friday inclusive) during the seven weeks of Lent, there are restrictions both on the number of meals taken daily and on the types of food permitted; but when a meal is allowed, there is no fixed limitation on the quantity of food to be eaten.

[This material is taken from the introduction to The Lenten Triodion. In modern practice, the above rules tend to be somewhat relaxed, and they have always been relaxed for children and the infirm. Fast as you are able and consult Fr. Luke as needed. As you eat less physical food, it is important to increase your intake of spiritual food – prayer and reading scripture and the fathers of the Church.]
