Welcome to Holy Trinity Parish

Today is Eighth Sunday after Pentecost. The Epistle is from 1 Corinthians 1:10-18. The Gospel is from Matthew 14:14-22. Silas & Silvanus.

Holy Trinity is a diverse and welcoming parish of the Carpatho Russian Diocese, under the Ecumenical Patriarchate.

His Eminence, Metropolitan Gregory of Nyssa, is our diocesan ruling hierarchy.

Divine Liturgy is offered Sunday at 10 am. As reminder only those Orthodox Christians who are properly prepared are invited to receive Holy Communion.

Everyone is invited downstairs following Divine Liturgy for Coffee Hour and Fellowship.

Come down and meet Fr. Luke and the parishioners.

Our parish offers many opportunities to pray, to study and learn more about Jesus Christ and His Holy Orthodox Church.

If you have any questions about the Orthodox Church, our Faith, or our parish please feel free to contact Fr. Luke. He is more than happy to meet with you and talk.

Help Re-Stock Our

Kitchen: We need paper towels and decaf coffee. Thank you!

We have two Scholarship recipients this year: Nataly Guerrero and Grace Radcliff. Grace is away until December and we will recognize her when she returns to home. Today, however, we would like to recognize Nataly who recently graduated Henry Abbot Technical High School. She is attending Sacred Heart University this fall to study Neuroscience. Congratulations to Grace and Antaly. We are all very proud of you! May God grant you man years!

Dorothy Day

Dorothy Day—Our next date to serve at Dorothy Day is Friday, August 11th from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. No experience needed. All help welcome for all or part of the afternoon. Service hours available for high school students. See Susan Sulich if you want to volunteer.

| Perogie Dash

Perogie Dash—Our annual Perogie Dash 5k to benefit Healing Hearts of Regional Hospice is right around the corner on Saturday, August 19th. There will be lots of opportunity to help with this parish-wide event before and on the day of the race. Stay tuned for sign-up sheets. We will also be looking for sponsors to help offset the cost of the race. Attached is a 2023 Sponsorship form. All sponsors are featured on our t-shirts and receive additional publicity. If you are part of a business and would like to sponsor the race, use the attached form and attach your logo. Consider asking businesses you patronize to support this worthwhile community cause.

| Missionary visitation

Guatemala Missionary visit – Fr. Juvenal Repass, OCMC missionary from Guatemala will be visiting out parish from Saturday, August 12 and Sunday, August 13. He has been in Guatemala for the last several years and is now repositioning his ministry to Brazil. He will be here to serve, preach and give a presentation on his work in Guatemala.

Adult Education Opportunities

We have several adult education classes going on currently that are also online:

Spirituality Class – Mondays at 7:00 p.m. This week we are starting a new book: For The Life of The World by Fr. Alexander Schmemmann

Catechism Class – Wednesdays at 7:00 p.m. For those studying to come into the Church and those in the Church who want to deepen their understanding and participation in the Faith. We'll be starting a new book soon by Metropolitan Emiliano entitled: Priest, Parish and Renewal. New Testament – Thursdays at 9:00 a.m.

currently we are reading and studying St. Paul's Epistle to the Ephesians

Old Testament Class – Fridays at 9:00 a.m. We have begun Psalms.

All classes will take place in the church hall. We will also make them available via Zoom for those who cannot attend in person. (live, same credentials).

Church Store—We have many new items in our Church Store. Check out our selection of books for summer reading, beautiful icons, jewelry, and religious items. We have many children's offerings and items perfect for gift giving. Your purchase also benefits the parish. If there are any items you would like to see in our store, please let Lisa Farrah or Sarah Mannello know.

Silverman Farm visit – We are planning to go and meet at Silverman Farm in Easton Wednesday, August 2 at 10 AM. There are different fruits to pick such as peaches and blueberries to pick. Also, there is a small animal farm there the kids can visit. We will save some of the fruit to bless next Sunday for the feast of the Transfiguration.

Summer Church School – We will have a one-day summer church session on Monday, August 14. Fr. Luke will go over the two summer feasts: The Transfiguration of Jesus Christ and the Dormition of the Virgin Mary.

Millennial Meeting

Each month the young adults of the parish meet up to spend time together and talk about topics that pertain to the ever-looming questions of "How do I adult?" This group is a forum for every young professional, new parent and all others in a transitional time of their life to come together and share the challenges of our ever-changing lives, and an opportunity to set down those cares for a couple of hours and join in fellowship. The group usually meets on the last Saturday of every month. Contact Nick Fong for more information, nickfong1@gmail.com.

Coffee Hour

Coffee Hour—Our coffee hour is a great opportunity to spend time together and share a meal. If there's an item or dish, you'd like to bring sign up on the sheet downstairs. No one needs to do the whole coffee hour! All offerings are welcome.

OYMT Trip to West Virginia

OYMT Trip to West Virginia—With thanksgiving to God and gratitude for all your prayers for our trip the Orthodox Youth Mission Team returned safely from our ASP trip to West Virginia last Sunday! We spent a Spirit filled and fruitful week in West Virginia serving 7 families. Some of the projects we worked on were building a ramp for the Mom of a family who has 10 foster children, helping create a level and safe floor for a woman immobilized by a stroke, framing and sheet rocking 3 bedrooms in a home of single mom with four children and for a couple whose home was severely damaged in a fire. In addition, our team worked on roofing, siding, painting and other jobs. More importantly, our youth and adult leaders built relationships with our homeowners and one another and experienced an opportunity and a setting for deepening their relationship with our Lord, Who blessed us abundantly! We look forward to sharing our experiences with you in our newsletter and Thank You Coffee Hour in September!

Upcoming Events

Feast of the Transfiguration – August 6

Lenox Retreat - November 10 thru November 12

Dorothy Day Soup Kitchen – August 11th

Feast of the Dormition of the Mother of God – August 15

Perogie Dash 5K – Saturday, August 19

Parish Garden—Our parish garden is growing strong! Many thanks to all who have planted. We have tomatoes, squash, beans, lettuce, cauliflower, broccoli, pumpkins, peppers, watermelons, beans, radishes and some mystery veggies as well as herbs growing. There is still some space if anyone would like to plant anything else. Anyone is welcome to come and weed or water the garden. We look forward to sharing the harvest with everyone as God provides.

Help Needed for the Perogie

Dash—Plans are well underway for our annual Perogie Dash 5K to Benefit Healing Hearts of Regional Hospice. There are lots of ways to help with this event. See the sign-up sheet in the hall for tasks before and on the day of the road race. To increase our donation to Healing Hearts we will also have a sign-up sheet of items needed for the race that may be donated to reduce our expenses. Thank you all in advance!

Lenox Retreat—Save the Date—Our annual Lenox Retreat will take place from Fri., Nov. 10-Sun., Nov. 12, 2023. Please note this is the SECOND weekend in November (not the first which we usually do). More details to come.

Transfiguration of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ

Holy Trinity Orthodox Church

"... a place of refuge full of love and joy."

Holy Land Pilgrimage—

We are putting together a group to go on a trip the Holy Land this year. The trip will take place from Oct. 16-28th and will be led by Fr. Ilya Gotlinsky who we have worked with before and has an excellent reputation and much experience with this pilgrimage.

Our Lord had spoken to His disciples many times not only concerning His Passion, Cross, and Death, but also concerning the coming persecutions and afflictions that they themselves would endure. Since all these evils were near at hand, but the enjoyment of good things which they hoped to receive in their stead was yet to come, our Savior desired to give them full assurance, evidently and openly, concerning that glory which is prepared for those who endure to the end. Therefore, fulfilling that which He had promised shortly before, that "there be some standing here which shall not taste of death, till they see the Son of man coming in His Kingdom" (Matt. 16:28), He took His three foremost disciples and ascended Mount Tabor, where He was transfigured before them. His face shone like the sun, and His clothes became white as the light. Suddenly, together with this dread and marvelous effulgence of light, there appeared those pinnacles of the Prophets, Moses and Elias, who spoke with the Lord Jesus concerning His saving Passion which was about to take place. Standing before Him as reverent servants, they showed that He is the Lord of both the living and the dead, for Moses came forth from Hades, having died many centuries before, and Elias, as it were from heaven, whither he had been taken up while yet alive. After a little while a radiant cloud overshadowed them and out of the cloud they heard that same voice which had been heard at the Jordan at the Baptism of Christ, testifying to the Divinity of Jesus and saying: "This is My beloved Son, in Whom I am well-pleased; hear ye Him" (Matt. 17: 5).

Such are the marvels, truly worthy of God, celebrated in this present feast, which is an image and prefiguring of the future state of the righteous, whose splendor the Lord spoke of, saying: "Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun" (Matt. 13:43). It is because of this that the Kontakion of this Feast is said daily (when there is not a great feast) in the Service of the Typica in perpetual commemoration of the glory that will be the lot of the Saints. According to tradition, the Lord's Transfiguration came to pass forty days before His Crucifixion; this is why the Transfiguration is celebrated forty days before the Exaltation of the Cross.

A Ministry of the Orthodox Christian Network

Is Christ divided?

Do you ever fight with your family members? Maybe you argue about your chores around the house. Or maybe you complain when you want things your way and nobody else does.

In today's epistle reading, Saint Paul tells us that we shouldn't fight with our family! Saint Paul is writing about the Church family in the city of Corinth, and he warns us that we should all stick together as one family in Christ. "For it has been reported to me by Chloe's people that there is quarreling among you, my brethren. What I mean is that each one of you says, 'I belong to Paul,' or 'I belong to Apollos,' or 'I belong to Cephas,' or 'I belong to Christ.' Is Christ divided?"

The new Christians in Corinth were fighting with each other. They were arguing and choosing sides and picking favorites. Saint Paul knew that this was not good for the Church. He knew that in a family, everybody works as a team together. He knew that the Church couldn't live and grow if everybody was fighting. He knew that the Church is one family, and we all belong to Christ!

Let's remember Saint Paul's important words. In our families and also in our church families, let's work together as a team. We are all on Christ's team together!

WHAT’S IN THE ICON?

On page 3, you can see a photograph of Saint Nicholas of Japan.
But here is an icon of him. Do they look alike?
Remember, icons aren’t supposed to look just like the real person.

SAINT NICHOLAS OF JAPAN WHO BROUGHT ORTHODOXY TO JAPAN

Have you ever learned about a country you’ve never visited? Some of their customs might have seemed strange to you!

About 150 years ago, a young man named Nicholas left his home in Russia. He traveled thousands of miles through the mountains and desert to reach the country of Japan. He wanted to tell the people there about Jesus Christ, because most of them had never even heard of Him!

But when Nicholas got to Japan, the people didn’t want to hear from him. They thought he was a spy, who hated Japan. But Nicholas already loved the people, whom God had made. For seven years, Nicholas learned the Japanese language. He tried to understand their religions and culture too. Saint Nicholas translated most of the Bible into Japanese, and also some of our church service books too.

Many people began to listen to Nicholas. Thousands of people were baptized as Orthodox Christians. Saint Nicholas built 219 churches and made many men to be priests and deacons. Now there are about 30,000 Orthodox Christians in Japan. If you ever visit, you can find a church too. And you can thank God for Saint Nicholas of Japan!

We celebrate Saint Nicholas on Tuesday, August 1st (OC: August 14th).
