Welcome to Holy Trinity Parish

Today is the Sunday of the Prodigal Son. The Epistle is from 1 Corinthians 6:12-20.

The Gospel is from Luke 15:11-32. Righteous Zeno and Zoilus.

Holy Trinity is a diverse and welcoming parish of the Carpatho Russian Diocese, under the Ecumenical Patriarchate.

His Eminence, Metropolitan Gregory of Nyssa, is our diocesan ruling hierarch.

Divine Liturgy is offered Sunday at 10 am. As reminder only those Orthodox Christians who are properly prepared are invited to receive Holy Communion.

Everyone is invited downstairs following Divine Liturgy for Coffee Hour and Fellowship.

Come down and meet Fr. Luke and the parishioners.

Our parish offers many opportunities to pray, to study and learn more about Jesus

Christ and His Holy Orthodox Church.

If you have any questions about the Orthodox Church, our Faith, or our parish please feel free to contact Fr. Luke. He is more than happy to meet with you and talk.

Help Re-stock Our Kitchen--We are currently in need of disposable coffee cups

Looking for Crafters—We are always open to have new crafters of handmade artisan items join us for our Bake and Craft sales. This year we have two sales and the cost is $35 for a table at one sale and $45 if you would like to have a table at both sales. Please contact Susan Sulich at info@hollytrinitydanbury.org if you are interested.

Dorothy Day

Dorothy Day—Our next date to serve at Dorothy Day will be Friday, April 12th from 1:30-4:30 p.m. Last Friday we served over 140 meals to those in need in our community. This number is DOUBLE what it was when we first started serving at the soup kitchen. There are two ways to help, by serving at the soup kitchen--no experience needed—or by preparing large casseroles that we can use to feed the guests. If you've been thinking about getting involved in this ministry, now is a great time! You can serve for all or part of the afternoon. Service hours available for high school students. See Susan Sulich if you want to volunteer.

| Roll Baking Sessions

Roll Baking Sessions-- We have scheduled roll baking sessions for our upcoming Easter Bake and Craft Sales. The next Session will take place on Sat. March 16th. If you can give a few hours to help out please see Carolyn Kaiser or Chrissanth Gross.

We have many children's offerings and items perfect for gift giving. Your purchase also benefits the parish. If there are any items you would like to see in our store, please let Lisa Farrah or Sarah Mannello know.

Soup to Share—Soup season is here! If you are making soup and you have some extra to spare consider putting it in a freezer container for "Soup to Share." We will keep these in the freezer in the church hall so that if someone is planning to visit a parishioner and would like to bring a warming meal, they will be available. We also have containers at the church you can use. Please label container with name of soup and main ingredients. Thank you!

Church School with Leon— All toddlers and young children are welcome to join in the church school classes with Leon. Help from older children is much appreciated. Classes will take place immediately following Liturgy on:

RETURNING TO GOD FROM OUR LENTEN EXILE

Presented by:
Dr. Michael Legaspi

March 30, 2024
Holy Trinity Orthodox Church
Danbury, CT

2 p.m. Check in
2:30—5 p.m. Retreat
Presentation at Holy Trinity parish hall
5:00—6:00 p.m. Vespers
6:00—7:00 p.m.
Fellowship and Lenten pot-luck dinner in parish hall

During Lent, the Church turns our attention in a special way to the Scriptures of the Old Testament. In this retreat, we will consider one of the most prominent themes in the Old Testament: Exile. The Law, Psalms, and Prophets all explore the nature of 'life outside the land.' In these Scriptures, we experience repeatedly the grief of sin, the pain of displacement, and the distress of finding ourselves remote from God. A closer look at Exile not only brings us to the heart of the Scriptures; it also shows us, in particular, what the Lenten journey is and how, in making the journey well, we come to share in Christ's passion and resurrection.
